NEWS FROM THE LIVESTOCK PUBLICATIONS COUNCIL

January 2004

Incoming NCBA President Jan Lyons will speak...

...at the LPC Luncheon this Friday during the National Cattleman's Beef Association Convention in Phoenix. If you have not responded yet to the luncheon you may do so immediately by contacting Diane at dianej@flash.net or 817/336-1130. The buffet style lunch is $26.00 and you may pay at the door. Remember the food count is important so we must bill no-shows.

This luncheon will kick off our 30th year of LPC and will start at 12:00 noon in the Salon 2 Room of the Wyndham Hotel, just one block from the Convention center.

After hearing from Incoming President Lyons the announcement of the 2004 Headliner and Hall of Fame winners will be announced. There will be no formal business meeting in order to keep the event short yet allow time to visit with your LPC friends and associates.

Forrest Bassford Student Award Applications due February 15

Scholarship applications for the Forrest Bassford Student Award sponsored by LPC and the Chicago Mercantile Exchange are now available. This $2500 scholarship will be awarded in Tampa at the 2004 Ag Publications Summit (APS). Also, up to four travel scholarships will be awarded to deserving students who must be able to attend the APS. This year's travel scholarships will now be $750 each rather than $500 as in previous years. This change was made at the recent board of directors meeting. If you need an application, go to the LPC web site at: www.livestockpublications.com or contact the LPC office. For questions, contact: Angie Denton, committee chairman 800/821-5478, ext 211. Deadline for applications is February 15, 2004.

LOGO CONTEST
~Prize of $100!~
DEADLINE IS THIS SATURDAY, JAN. 31

In commemoration of our 30th anniversary, LPC is holding a contest to "freshen up" or do a complete overhaul of the LPC logo. LPC has held onto their current logo for most of its 30 years.

The deadline for entries is JANUARY 31 and a staff member of any LPC member is eligible including students. The logo needs to be submitted in .pdf format to the LPC office. Two things to take into consideration are the ability to use it in both black and white and four color. It's also encouraged to add a 30th anniversary angle which can be updated each year thereafter. If you have any questions, please contact the LPC office.

Prize money is $100 and bragging rights to the one winner!

2004 Dues Statement are Out

The directory form for 2004 and your dues statements have been mailed. Please note the new dues structure for publication members is $175. Service member dues remain at $150.

Also a new category for "alumni" membership has been established. This is for those members who have either left a LPC member organization or have retired and want to continue to support LPC activities. Dues are $50 with one half of the amount going to the student fund. If you know of someone who is interested in becoming an alumni member, please let them know about their opportunity to support LPC or inform the LPC office and we'll send information to them.

JOB POSTINGS

APS Summer Internship Available

Students interested in a summer internship are encouraged to apply for this position that is sponsored by the Agricultural Publications Summit and works on the upcoming Summit in Tampa. Up to two college students will be selected to work out of the LPC office in Fort Worth. The program will pay each student $2000 to help defray living expenses during the length of the program. You qualify if you are a current college student including those who graduate in May 2004.

The application process is simple: Send a current resume and cover letter to the LPC office, 910 Currie Street, Fort Worth, TX 76107, attention, Diane Johnson. Deadline for applications is March 1. You must be available to work June 14 through August 13 and live in Fort Worth.

Expect to work some long days and some shorter days (less than 10 hours) Plan to meet lots of people and anticipate the memory of an incredible internship experience. Must be willing to have fun. Benefits will far outweigh the pay. Feel free to call with questions...817/336-1130. Please do not FAX your applications. When's the deadline again? March 1.
